

Differences between Street Trading Consents and Licences

Licence	Consent
District Council obliged to grant a licence unless the application ought to be refused on one or more of the grounds in the Act e.g. insufficient room for the type of unit requested.	District Council under no duty to grant a street trading consent and need not specify statutory grounds for refusal.
District Council may only revoke or refuse to renew a licence on the statutory grounds.	No statutory limitation on a district council's power to revoke or refuse to renew a street trading consent.
Before a district Council may vary a principal term of a street trading licence, or before it may refuse to grant or renew or revoke a street trading licence, it must first invite the applicant/licence holder to make representations and then afford that person a reasonable opportunity to make these representations.	No notice requirements apply to a street trading consent.
Statutory grounds of appeal against the refusal, revocation or variation of a principal term of a street trading licence are contained in the Schedule.	There is no right of appeal against the refusal to grant or renew a consent or against the revocation or variation of a consent.
A licence holder may be prosecuted for a breach of the 'principal terms' which relate to the street in which, the days and times upon which and the articles in which the holder trades.	A street trading consent holder may only be prosecuted for a breach of a condition where he trades from a stationary van, cart, barrow, vehicle or from a portable stall in a place or at a time not included in the consent, or for breach of condition relating to the positions and times in which he may trade, but not for a breach of a condition relating to the type of article to be sold.
A district Council may recover from a licence holder such reasonable charges as it may determine for the collection of refuse and the cleansing of streets etc.	A District Council may not charge the holder of a street trading consent for the collection of refuse and cleansing of streets etc.
Where a licence is surrendered or revoked the Council has a discretion to remit or refund any fee paid for it.	Where a consent is surrendered or revoked a Council is under a duty to remit or refund the whole or part of any fee paid for the consent.
The consent of the highway authority is necessary for the designation of a street as a Licence Street.	Highway authority consent is not required before the designation of a street as a consent street.

- 1.2 The powers to control Street Trading within the Council's area are conferred by Schedule 4 Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1982, which has been adopted by the Council. Under Schedule 4 of the Act, the Council is able to manage Street Trading by designating streets as Consent Streets, Licence Streets, or Prohibited Streets.
- 1.3 The Council recognises the valuable contribution that Street Trading can make to the local culture and economy, and the services that Street Traders provide to residents and visitors. Street Trading can provide people with a flexible way of working, to meet the demands of the public where and when such demands arise.
- 1.4 Ashfield District Council is committed to improving the support provided to small businesses, ensuring that there are no unnecessary burdens placed on them, and that they are provided with sufficient guidance and advice to enable them to operate safely and successfully.
